THE BEAST HAD CONTACTED
THE X-MEN...

COUNT NEFARIA AND HIS ANI-MEN HAD TAKEN OVER MORAD

AND GAINED CON-TROL OVER AMER-

NEFARIA WAS HOLDING THE

THE X-MEN HAD FLOWN TO STOP HIM, AND NEFARIA HAD SHOT THEM OUT OF THE SKY TWICE.

DO NOT WORRY, KURT.
I CAN CARRY YOU AND COLOSSUS EASILY.

WHAT TO SINK YOUR TEETH INTO WHEN YOU'RE HUNGRY AND YOU'RE NOT A WEREWOLF

Every now and then, do you get this uncontrollable urge to bite into something that's really got some meat in it?

Are you tired of sugar-sweet snacks that dissolve in your mouth, and crunchy snacks that you can hardly tell you ate, and all the other boring stuff you have to put up with, every day?

Well, take heart. And, while you're at it, take Slim Jim along in your pocket.

Slim Jim is a chewy, all-meat snack that comes in five very un-boring flavors. Mild, spicy, salami, bacon, and pizza. And you can find it at the grocery store. Or at a lot of the places where you've been getting those sissy snacks.

You might want to carry a few extra ones, too. Then, if you meet a werewolf, you can give him something to sink his teeth into instead of you.

A LITTLE LESS THAN A MEAL. A LITTLE MORE THAN A SNACK.

ADDRESS YOUR LETTERS TO:
THE MARVEL COMICS
GROUP, SIXTH FLOOR
575 MADISON AVE.,
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10022

Dear Len and Dave and the gang

I just finished reading the first adventure of the new X-Men and simply had to write! I have long awaited the return of Charles Xavier's mutant team, and must say that my hopes and anticipations have been far surpassed. I'm impressed.

"Second Genesis" is a jewel. The formation of a new team to rescue the missing members of the original is an excellent introduction.

I will suppress the urge to ramble on and on about details, saying only that you have, as intended, succeeded in attaching the new characters — and hence the revived series — to me. For instance, I feel a strange pity for Kurt Wagner, an enchanting attachment to Ororo, a curious interest in the Banshee's receptive attitude, and a respect for the sarcasm of Sunfire. Seeds of conflict were strategically planted within the team, and I pity poor Scott Summers for having the responsibility to hold the team together in the Professor's absence.

Dave Cockrum upheld his fourth of the work just as well. I can imagine the difficulty involved in squeezing thirteen characters and one Krakoa into a panel half the size of a page! I found the aforementioned panel on page 42 to be especially good.

One thing that I felt slightly unsettling, however, was the means by which Krakoa was expelled from the Earth. The feasibility of producing an antigravity field by severing the planet's magnetic lines of force is questionable, if at all possible.

I will close by echoing Angel's question: What are we going to do with thirteen X-Men? No need to worry. I'm certain Professor X will think of something.

Richard Heim

335 N W 19th Street
Lincoln, Nebraska 68528

As you have seen by now, Richard, it wasn't Professor X at all, but rather, plotter Len Wein and neo-X-Men scripter Chris Claremont who decided what to do about the problem of having a baker's dozen of excitable X-Men — mainly trimming the group down to a manageable size.

We received an almost unanimously favorable response from Marveldom Assembled on our first (and only) issue of THE GIANT-SIZE X-MEN, an issue we were more than a wee bit apprehensive about, since it was concerned mostly with the breaking of old traditions and establishing an entirely new set of heroes for your X-amination. We're glad you liked it, mellow ones.

Dear Len & Dave,

The long awaited event has finally come to pass, the X-Men have returned. And what a spectacular return! The artwork is the best I have seen this year and the story possessed the same artistic beauty. It was superb.

And I like the new X-Men. The international characters give it a feeling of being beyond mere nationalism. A feeling of really protecting the world, rather than just the U.S. And the independent nature of the new X-Men has the feel of the Defenders non-team. All in all I think you have really got something here. And I can hardly wait to see the new Danger Room.

With the return of the X-Men, and the coming of Doc Savage, this has got to be one of Marvel's greatest years. My only question is, how will you top this?

So, eagerly awaiting X-MEN to go monthly, I remain..

Stuart Bracken

Springfield, Oregon 97477

Dear Len and Dave,

I don't think I have ever seen so many new concepts that I like so well in one magazine. First, you've brought back the most underrated group in Marveldom, and in the process matured them admirably from the juveniles they once were.

This, however, was not enough. You had the guts to create four (to the best of my knowledge) brand new super-heroes. Adding in two of your most off-beat recent creations and a reformed baddie; you've created the first really international, multi-ethnic super-group. Although I certainly hope you overcome the squabbling soon. This bunch has too much potential as a team to have detracting inter-person conflicts. With this diversity, you should find plenty of plot material without splitting them up.

But, though the concept was great, and the plotting really outstanding, the artwork nearly stole the whole show. The new costumes were superior (although I must voice a certain male preference for Storm's original outfit). Thunderbird's was especially good. And I think the modification to Cyclops' visor was as effective as any of the originals, bringing his appearance from slightly Mickey Mouse to one to make men tremble. (Now if you can update Banshee and Marvel Girl's costumes, this bunch will look as dynamite as they are.)

But there is something that begins to bug me. You've introduced Storm, a very bewitching character. Even on paper, those eyes look like you could fall in. And I can almost see some member falling for her, and another also falling, or her falling for someone else, but why? Just once I'd like to see some characters who can maintain somewhat more casual relations. People that can enjoy each other's presence without soul-searching, totally involved pairings. There are people like that in the world, you know. And you're now dealing with people from backgrounds not rooted in the American moral system. I think we're ready for this.

Thank you for the new X-Men.

2nd Lt. Tom Ryle USAF
811 W. 31st St. Apt. 3
Cheyenne, WY 82001

An interesting idea, Tom, and one that we'll pass on to Chris, not to mention one that we're sure will elicit responses from Marveldom en masse.

In the meantime we'll sit back and wait for the deluge of mail to pour in on issue #94 the first regular sized issue of the all new X-MEN.

See ya in sixty!

YOUR BODY BECOMES A POWERFUL WEAPON OF DEFENSE

We'll teach you how to use your hands, feet, arms, legs, elbows and knees as powerful weapons against any attacker. You'll learn the KUNG FU & KARATE techniques of the thrust punch, hammer fist, X & U punch, knife hand, spear hand, palm heel strike, snap kick, thrust kick, stamping kick, knee kick, elbow strike, backfist, X block, sweeping block, high and low blocks and much, much more. You'll learn nerve centers and pressure points—where, when and how to hit effectively and avoid being hit yourself. You'll learn all the essential secrets of these two Oriental fighting arts—ancient secrets that have allowed smaller, weaker men to defeat larger, more powerful men with ease.

A NEW, CONFIDENT YOU

Take this course and feel like a new person. Never be afraid to go anywhere ever again—ball game beach, schoolyard, bar, dance, tough neighborhood, back alley or parking lot at night. Gain self-confidence and win the respect and admiration of those you love. Your cool, confident, steel-like gaze will show others you are no person to fool around with. Feel a new power come over you—the power to master almost any self-defense situation!

THE KING IS BACK! 'NUFF SAID!

STAN LEE'S SOAPBOX

This month's news is too big to hold off for another minute! Jack Kirby is back! Yep, that's right! O' King Kirby (and don't forget it was at Marvel that he got that sobriquet) has returned to the bosom of the bluish 'Bulpen. This is where his heart is—this is where it all started—and this is where one of the greatest talents in comics belongs. One of Jolly Jack's first projects will be a Marvel Treasury edition of (hold onto your hat!) 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY. Also, he'll start on another brand new series dealing with the Gods that walk amongst us. And just to prove the master's hand still hasn't lost its touch, he'll be taking over the strip he started more than three decades ago—the one and only CAPTAIN AMERICA! Jack'll be writing and drawing the whole magna by his lonesome. Much as I'm itching to collaborate with him once more, I've still got to finish writing SON OF ORIGINS so that the great new sequel to ORIGINS OF MARVEL COMICS can be on sale for you before this Christmas. But as soon as Jack and I get a breather, and when you least expect it, watch for a gigantic special edition of—you guessed it—THE SILVER SURFER! Anyway, one of the most dramatic moments in the Mighty Marvel Con, which was held at Easter time, was when most of the Bullpen was on stage for a panel discussion of The Fantastic Four, and I mentioned that I had a special announcement to make. As I started talking about Jack's return to a totally incredulous audience, everyone's head started to snap around as Kirby himself came waltzing down the aisle to join us on the rostrum! You can imagine how it felt, clownin' around with the co-creator of most of Marvel's greatest strips once more. Now if we could only find poor old Irving Forbush. Anyway, the Con was a total triumph. Kirby's back! Howard the Duck loves you all! And every day's a holiday at Marvel! So till we meet again, remember those imperishable words of Aunt Petunia—never speak harshly of your enemy—when you can kick 'em in the shins instead!

Excelsior!

Stan

ITEM! If you think the triumphant return of the King (which has got to be the most awesome arrival since MacArthur trucked on back to the Philippines) is the only big event coming at you from your bluish-bulpen, we just have to casually mention the title of our grandest goofiest and just the greatest guest star extravaganza of all—the super-team supreme—THE CHAMPIONS. Featuring five of the most far-out tight-lin' lures ever to cross the pages of a comic mag, this branchchild of TONY (the Tiger) ISABELLA is even at this moment being blazingly brought to life by Dashing DON HECK, whose pulse-pounding pencils on both THE AVENGERS and THE DEFENDERS elicited such enormous approval from Marvel-dom Assembled! So join Tony, Dun, THE ANGEL, THE BLACK WIDOW, GHOST RIDER, HERCULES, THE ICEMAN, and a volume of side villains for this power-packed premiere, on sale in July! (And while you're waiting, you might pick up on a few other super-group sensations—namely the FANTASTIC FOUR, the aforementioned AVENGERS and DEFENDERS, the X-MEN, the GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY, and those wide-eyed wonders of World War II—THE INVADERS. At Marvel, everybody gets into the act!)

ITEM! Look out, Lockjaw! Watch out, Redwing, here comes the all-time ace of the animal kingdom—HOWARD THE DUCK! That's right, O True Believer! Stan and the Marvel gang proudly present an all-new comic mag masterpiece starring the Aquatic Avenger whose uncanny reads of derring-do have astonished readers in THE MAN THING. Once more, STEVE GERBER and FRANK BRUNNER comb their talents to give you what may turn out to be the greatest humor or greatest adventure mag the world has ever known. Once more, that's HOWARD THE DUCK—now in his own book! And you thought we didn't love ya!

ITEM! "Cut off a limb and two more shall take its place!" So sayeth Hydra, and so sayeth MARVEL! In case you were wondering what we had in store for you in our magnificent magazine, no wonder no more. First off, SAVAGE TALES (starring A ZAR) is gone. But it's being replaced by not one, but two great new titles—MARVEL SUPER ACTION (starring KAZAR, THE PUNISHER and DOMINIC FORTUNE) and SHERLOCK HOLMES (the dean of detectives—exciting adventures as portrayed by Devil May Care DOUG MOENCH and Valiant VAL MAYERIK). Secondly, DRACULA LIVES and VAMPIRE TALES are gone. But they're being replaced by not one, but two, but four new magazines—THE LEGION OF MONSTERS, presenting spine-chilling stories of DRACULA, THE FRANKENSTEIN MONSTER, and the all-new MANPHIBIAN MASTERS OF TERROR (the works of Robert E. Howard, H.P. Lovecraft, Robert Bloch, and other titans of the typewriter, re-presented in comics form). MARVEL MOVIE PREMIERE (the sensations of cinemaland—brought to you by masterful Marvel) and STAR LORD (science-fiction with a difference!) How's that for making Hydra look like a pack of pikers?

ITEM! It had to happen! After two years and 198 pages (surely a rollickin' record of some sort), Dauntless DON MCGREGOR'S classic tale of heroism and revolution, "Panther's Rage," is drawing to a close. So don't dare miss the latest issue of JUNGLE ACTION starring THE BLACK PANTHER! (P.S. for BILLY GRAHAM watchers, just who is that handsome dude we've been seeing in the back grounds of television commercials for such diverse products as beer and chewing gum? Darned if he doesn't look familiar.)

ITEM! If you missed MARVELCON '75 (again, then you missed the comics avalanche of the decade. Not only was Jack Kirby's return to Marvel announced before an enthralled crowd, but most of your favorite Marvel madmen were there to meet and greet all the keepers of the flame who likewise keep us from going bankrupt! There were panels, displays, and even guest appearances by Spider and of flap America themselves! Even if you missed the event of the convention year, though, you can still share in the fun. Just pick up on FOOO MAGAZINE #10 and dig on our special photo news report on the festivities! And, of course, there's always MARVELCON '76! Year after year, Marvel's number one! Believe it!
